

In the old republics, the national (and world-wide) POVERTY problem is effectively CLOAKED as a race, homeless, diversity and inclusion, population control, ecological, gender identity, addiction, currency, trade, and free-enterprise problem.

The enslaving of the American taxpayer with non-consented debt issued by the private Federal Reserve Bank and the Congress is simply serving to provide far greater enrichment to the billionaire class. This is leading to the greatest currency, market, and world-wide reset in arrangements in human history.

The billionaire-class and their descendants may change the POVERTY calculus through great works of philanthropic relief, with education and practice in self-reliance, civic responsibility, regenerative urban and community living and development, entrepreneurship, and great works of human and civic compassion.
